So it's taken a while because I certified in 1998, but I didn't get my first job, you know, as a you know, an administrator or principal until 2003-2004. Q. Okay. But, now, you had an assistant principal position in 2001 at Loveless and Brewbaker Tech at the same time? A. Okay. And let me retrace this. Let me kind of go back over it because I would have brought my resume. Okay. So for 2003-2004, I was assistant principal at BTW I mean I'm sorry. That was MS. CARTER: I think she might be to secure the principal position as opposed to the assistant principal position at BTW?

to submit a letter of interest.

Robinson, and -- that's all I can recall. 1 Q. Okay. What happened after your interview 2 next in the step of securing this position as principalship?

A. Okay. After the interview, you just have to wait, you know. You have to wait because there's a chance of getting it, and I had already gone through the struggle of not getting assistant principal the first time, so I didn't want to push it and say, well, did I get hired? Am I going to get this school? So I just had to wait until, you know, it was approved.

Q. About how long was that, do you remember? 14

A. It was an eternity for me, but I guess, you 15 16 know, for the most part of the - I don't know. Maybe about a month. I don't want 17 18 to say because it will be incorrect, 19 because I'm uncertain. MS. CARTER: It's okay. 20

A. Okay. Not the principalship. MPS did the principalship.

Q. Okay. In your experience as principal, has there ever been a time when you've 12 recommended a candidate for a position and 13 14 that candidate not be hired?

A. Basically -- and it's hard to say that because we are asked to submit recommendations, our first, second, and our third choices. And, you know, all of my choices are pretty much, you know, I would be okay with either one of them. So I can't say that, no, they've been denied. It just depends. And then I remember one year when I was interviewing, there may

A. Well, when I was hiring -- when we were 1 2 trying to find an assistant principal to

3 fill the slot at my school, so --

4 Q. How many people were on this committee? 5

A. It was basically all of the principals who were looking for an assistant principal, so there had to have been maybe about seven people in that room.

8 9 Q. And what year was this that you were 10 looking for an assistant principal?

A. I was looking for an assistant principal 11 2004-2005, the summer, so that would be 12 2004. Summer 2004. 13

14

A. That was the first time I was looking 15

6 recommendations, and I would have been fine 7 with either of the recommendations for

8 2005-2006. 9

Q. Okay. You say either of the recommendations. Did you make two recommendations?

A. I did three. 12

Q. Three? 13

A. Uh-huh (positive response). 14

15 O. Do you ever indicate to Mr. Barker or anyone at HR who is your preferred amongst 16 17 the three?

A. Yes, I can indicate, yes, and that would be 18 in my ranking. But still, going back to 19 what I said, I would be fine with either of 20 the three. 21

23 A. Uh-huh (positive response).

That same day. And it could have been following. And then I had another interview with a teacher who's on my staff, Martin Dukes, and that was he was my last interview, Martin Dukes. He's a social studies teacher at BTW. Q. And you stated that Marvin Lowe had a phone interview with you? A. Yes. Q. And that was after you had had the personal, face-to-face interview with Melvin Lowe? A. Yes. Q. When was Martin Dukes' interview? A. I don't remember the date, but it was

Q.	Now, what kind of certification would be required for this position?

A. An administrative certification. And to have that, you have to have completed a course -- your four years and then the master's program, and this is like five classes or more after the master's program. So having an administrative certificate for K through 12, those are the requirements.

- O. Are you aware of whether or not Mr. Lowe 11 possesses or possessed at that time an 12 13 administrative certificate?
- 14 A. For him to be in the interview with us at 15 central office, I assumed.

- 19 O. After you had this 30, 35-minute interview 20 with Mr. Lowe, what happened next as far as 21 the hiring process?
- 22 A. Well, I had to interview -- I interviewed a 23 couple other people. I thought that day several days afterwards. Yes. Several 2 days after.

> O. And how did Mr. Dukes go through the process of positioning himself for this administrative assistant --

A. He had to go through the same process with HR, and then he had to have an interview with the principal.

Q. Okay. Had he made you aware of his interest in this position prior to your interviewing Melvin Lowe?

12 A. I knew that he was certifying in administration, but I didn't know what his 13 14 interests would be in Montgomery Public 15 Schools. You never know until, you know, 16 people submit a letter of interest, so I 17 didn't know beyond that. 18

O. Did Mr. Dukes obtain his certification?

A. He already had his certification. He has a master's in administration from ASU.

21 O. When did he get that certification?

22 A. He got it maybe in May. I'm not sure, but, 23 you know, May.

- 7 Q. Okay. When did you call Marvin Lowe?
- 8 A. I had to have called him because I had to
- 9 call Melvin to get his telephone number, 10 his cell phone number, because the number
- that he had given me wasn't working, so it 11
- must have been the day after. I was at 12 13

- A. The day after or a couple of days after. 18
- 19 Q. Okay. When you called Melvin to get
- 20 Marvin's cell phone number, what did you 21 and Melvin discuss that day?
- 22 A. He basically discussed that, you know, he 23 enjoyed the interview, and I said I enjoyed

Did you ever speak with Jimmy Barker about hiring Melvin Lowe for this position?

- 5 A. I made my recommendations, talked about 6 those recommendations, and that's it.
 - Q. Okay. Who were your recommendations?
- 8 A. My first recommendation was Ronald Ashley, and I got him. My second one was a 9 10 Mr. Johnston, who is at Lee High School
- 11 now. And my third recommendation was his 12 brother, Mr. Lowe's brother.
- 13 Q. Okay. Let's back up. Did you interview Mr. Johnston? 14
- 15 A. Yes, I did.

1 assistant principal has is to do textbooks, 2 inventory, and he kind of made it clear in his interview that he was well prepared to 3 4 do that. So I didn't really get into 5 details with that because my focus was 6 Ronald Ashley. I wanted him.

- Q. Did you discuss Marvin Lowe with Mr. Barker?
- A. The brother?
- Q. Yes, Marvin.
 - A. Yes, I did discuss him, but more so, you know, this is a guidance counselor, he's 12 months, and that I was just very impressed with him as well. Because he did come for a follow-up, face-to-face interview. It was a courtesy. After we had our telephone interview, he just
- stopped by the school one day to meet me face to face and give me some information in my hand. So I discussed that because I
- had an opportunity to see him face to face 21 22 beyond the telephone.
 - Q. Did you ever discuss Melvin Lowe with Jimmy

A. I talked about Mr. Ashley and just kind of getting some background information; that, you know, he has an excellent reputation. He was very impressive in the interview; I mean, extremely organized, poised. He answered all of the questions and was able to elaborate and provide examples as to where he ---

We have an aviation magnet at BTW. Mr. Ashley has background in the military, and our aviation teacher was up for PEPE evaluation this year, so it was just very impressive to hear about the military experience and how that could apply to what we were doing at BTW. So I shared with him that I was impressed with his organization, with his presence, and with his professionalism in the interview.

- Q. Did you discuss Mr. Johnston with Jimmy 19 20 Barker?
- A. I just discussed that I was impressed with 21 him as well. He had training in logistics, 22

23 and one of the biggest assignments that an 1 Barker?

- 8 A. My first choice.
- 9 Q. Okay. And he was the one that was hired 10 for the position?
- A. Hired, uh-huh (positive response). 11
 - Q. Did Mr. Ashley have any administrative experience prior to BTW?
 - A. He was in the classroom for several years. He would be the designee sometimes when his administrator, Johnny Jefferson, who is deceased now, would leave the building, so he had a lot of leadership experience at Floyd Middle and in the community.
- 20 Q. Okay. Did you have any conversations with Melvin Lowe with regard to you recommending 21 22 him for this position?
- A. I didn't say that -- and one reason why I 23

A. It was important to exchange phone numbers

23	A. Floyd Middle Magnet.

And I think we got lost right at the beginning of the interview because -- and I asked him -- you know, I told him at the end, because I didn't want to make him feel like he had talked too much in the interview, so I said, you know, thank you.

He said, yes, I've always known that you -- pretty much it's good to take charge of the interview, because people want to hear about everything that you've done. So I heard mostly about Mr. Lowe during the interview, not the questions. My questions weren't being answered.

And then after a certain point, if you're halfway through the interview, then as an administrator who is hiring, you're thinking, okay. If I give you a job assignment, it's going to be about you and not about what the task is about. So it moved more so to this is who I am, this is what I've accomplished. And my questions weren't answered, and I gave up pretty much midway. It moved into just 4 MS. CARTER: I have just a quick 5 clarification.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. CARTER:

Q. You said just for -- because this is our purpose for being here, I just want to clarify this.

You said that when you interviewed Melvin Lowe in your office that you had planned for it to be a structured interview, but it didn't turn out like that. Explain to us in more detail what you mean by that.

A. Well, when I said that I planned for it to be a structure interview, there was a set, just like with the human resources interview, of questions that I wanted to ask: Organizational skills, interpersonal skills, experience in the magnet school and in the performing and nonperforming arts.

conversational, this is what I've done in my lifetime.

Q. What do you mean, you gave up midway? You gave up trying to ask your questions?

A. Yes, trying to get through the rest of the questions.

Q. Was there ever any question or ever a time that Melvin Lowe would have been in your top three picks out of those interviews?

A. No, because the candidates were so strong. And I hate to compare Melvin to Marvin, you know, siblings. My parents did that, you know. But they were -- the candidates that I recommended, they were organized. They knew what they were talking about. When you gave them a question, they responded to it and provided examples as to how they would solve these problems, and they would draw from their previous experience. So that is what guided it because you don't know these individuals.

I knew nothing about Mr. Ashley other than he was coming from Floyd Middle, but
